What is Designer for a day?

Designer for a Day a 5-hour in-home one-on-one design session created to help you design, shop, or style your space in a short amount of time.

Here are a few examples of what we could achieve in our time together:

- Floor-plans and furniture layout
- Interior finish recommendations
- Design and suggest storage ideas
- Personal online shopping
- Optimal Interior styling for residential and commercial properties
- Professional measurements

What's included?

5-hour in-home 1-on-one collaborative design session.

PLUS...

- 1-hour Prep Call via Zoom to get clear on our priorities and get a virtual tour of your home.
- 1-hour Follow-up call via Zoom to get answers to the inevitable questions that arise.
- Complimentary Lunch and drinks
- Client Guidebook - A follow-up report with notes, links, recommendations, and next steps.
- Local travel

Designer for a day process

Step 1

DISCOVERY CALL

If you haven't already, book a Complimentary Discovery call to see if your project is a good-fit for this style of service.

Step 2

DECIDE YOUR DATES

Decide on available dates (including your kick-off call). You'll receive an agreement and invoice to lock it in.

Step 3

PRE-WORK

Before our session, you'll receive a questionnaire and provide photos of your space. We'll hop on a pre-meeting call to game plan your session.

Step 4

DESIGNER FOR A DAY SESSION

Designer for a Day a 5-hour in-home one-on-one design session created to help you design, shop, or style your space in a short amount of time.

Step 5

FOLLOW UP

You'll receive your "Client Guidebook" that has all our notes, links, suggestions, and next steps. Plus you can book a follow up call if you get stuck.

Neutrals Scheme 1. Ground floor colour scheme proposal

Neutral paint colors are calming and gentle on the eye. With little saturation, neutral colors seamlessly flow from one color into the next. Most neutral palettes also reflect naturally occurring colors, shaping a living area into a relaxing, nature-based space
